Dear Sir:

On Friday, April 11, 2008, a Preliminary Amendment and Request for Continued Examination application was filed via facsimile in view of the fact that the EFS-Web was down. Enclosed are copies of the documents as faxed, as well as, a copy of the Patent Office's "Auto-Reply Facsimile Transmission".

On Monday, April 14, 2008, it was discovered that the serial number on the RCE transmittal, PTO/SB/30 form, was inadvertently erroneous. However, the correct serial number was indicated on the Preliminary Amendment and Request for Continued Examination. A call was previously placed to the USPTO and we were advised that the Preliminary Amendment and RCE would be placed in the correct application since the serial number was correct on this document. We were also advised to resubmit the April 11, 2008 RCE filing, and that if the Preliminary Amendment and RCE were placed in the wrong file, it would not be a problem to transfer to the correct application.

As of June 12, 2008, Private PAIR did not reflect receipt of this transmission and a call was placed to Examiner Chea, the Examiner in charge of this application. In accordance to the Examiner's instructions, we are enclosing copies of all documents relating to this fax transmission and we respectfully request confirmation that the RCE will receive the April 11, 2008 filing date.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any additional fees or credit any overpayment to the deposit account of McAndrews, Held & Malloy, Ltd., Account No. 13-0017.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: June 17, 2008
